Discussion Questions

1. What qualities in Daniel's life made him stand out among the other officials, and why do you think his enemies could find no grounds for accusation against him?
2. What does Daniel's response to the king's decree reveal about his relationship with God?
3. How do the different responses of Daniel and King Darius to the crisis highlight the contrast between trusting God and trying to control outcomes?
4. If someone conducted a "Daniel 6 investigation" into your life, what qualities would they consistently find? Where would you most want to grow in integrity and character?
5. What spiritual disciplines have helped you remain faithful during difficult seasons? Which disciplines are easiest to neglect when life becomes busy, stressful, or painful?
6. What outcome are you currently tempted to control instead of entrusting to God? What would it look like to faithfully obey God while leaving the results in His hands?
7. Daniel was likely around eighty years old when this event occurred. What would it look like for you to finish your race with the same faithfulness, courage, and consistency that Daniel demonstrated? What habits need to be cultivated now to make that possible?
