Discussion Questions

1. Read Acts 22:1-21. What stands out to you about the way Paul tells his story? What parts of his past does he choose not to hide?
2. How can your personal story make the gospel tangible to someone who may not yet believe it?
3. Looking back over your life, what experiences have given you a perspective on God, yourself, or other people that you might not otherwise have?
4. How have difficult experiences in your story created a burden or compassion for particular people, needs, or opportunities?
5. Where can you now see that God was preparing you for something before you realized what He was doing?
6. If God intends to use your past to prepare you for your future, what might your story suggest about where He is calling you to serve or take a step of faith next?
