Discussion Questions

1. Read 2 Corinthians 8:10-12. What had the Corinthians previously intended to do, and what does Paul now urge them to do? What does “according to what a person has” teach us about Christian generosity?
2. Read verses 13-15. What does Paul mean by “equality”? What does his quotation from Exodus 16 add to his argument about believers caring for one another?
3. Read verses 16-24. What steps does Paul take to ensure that the offering is handled with integrity? According to verse 21, why does it matter that we do what is honorable both “before the Lord” and “before man”?
4. Good intentions are not the same as obedience. Where in your life are you most tempted to intend to be generous or faithful without actually following through? What would finishing look like?
5. Paul's concern moves beyond “me” to “we.” How should belonging to the body of Christ change the way you think about your money, possessions, and the needs of other believers?
6. The ultimate goal isn't simply raising money—it's honoring Christ. When you look at the way you earn, spend, save, and give, what does your stewardship communicate about what you value most?
