Discussion Questions

1. Why does Luke emphasize that he carefully investigated the events surrounding Jesus and wrote an “orderly account” (vv. 1-3)? What does that tell us about the historical nature of the Christian faith?
2. What does Luke mean when he says these events have been “fulfilled among us” (v. 1)? How does that language prepare us to see Jesus as the fulfillment of God’s larger plan?
3. According to verse 4, what does Luke want his Gospel to produce in Theophilus? Why is certainty such an important goal?
4. Where are you most tempted to let culture, personal preference, or other people shape your view of Jesus rather than Scripture?
5. What is the difference between knowing facts about Jesus and becoming increasingly certain of what you believe about Jesus? What strengthens that certainty?
6. If Jesus really is the fulfillment of God’s plan, how should that change the way you understand your own life and circumstances?
