

LUKE

Clay Smith
Senior Pastor

Who Do You Think You Are?

Luke 2:41-52

Jesus knew _____ before anyone _____ His identity.

Takeaways:

1. Because Jesus knew who He was, we can _____
_____.

2. Because Jesus knew who He was, we can _____
_____.

Next Steps:

What is God saying to me?

What am I going to do about it?

October 18, 2026

Discussion Questions

1. Why do you think people are so fascinated by origin stories? How is the story of Jesus as a 12-year-old different from the typical origin story of someone who goes on to do extraordinary things?
2. Read Luke 2:41-50. What does Jesus' response to Mary and Joseph in verse 49 reveal about His identity, His relationship with God the Father, and His understanding of His mission?
3. Jesus knew who He was before the world knew who He was. Why is it essential that we understand Jesus as more than a great teacher, moral example, or religious leader? How does believing that Jesus is the Son of God change the way we relate to Him?
4. Read Luke 2:51-52. Despite His unique identity as the Son of God, Jesus submitted to His earthly parents. What does this teach us about the relationship between knowing who we are and living in obedience?
5. Jesus' identity shaped His priorities. What are some things in our lives that compete with God's priorities? How can knowing who Jesus is help us prioritize what matters most?
6. Our identity should shape our priorities. As followers of Jesus, our identity is ultimately found in Him. What is one area of your life where your priorities need to change to better reflect who you are in Christ? What practical step can you take this week?