Discussion Questions

1. What are some things in our lives today that can keep us from fully receiving and following Jesus?

2. What is the difference between simply feeling sorry for sin and genuinely repenting? What fruit/evidence of repentance should others see in our lives?

3. How does understanding Jesus as both Savior and Judge challenge the way we think about our relationship with Him? Does it give us urgency to share the Good News?

4. How should knowing who Jesus is change the way we live? What is God saying to you through this passage, and how will you live it out this week?
